Night Rapidly Approaching.

In the last two lumings the lighted matches of smokers looked like hondres in the cavernous depths of the hig stand and play couldn't have sone beyond the twelfth round. Being confronted with the fact that they were face to face with a win or te then and there, the Braves, preferring a win, plotted and hammered their way to a triumph in quick time.

A cloud streaked sky did not furnish the best light in the world at any time. The weather conditions weren't as good as in Philadelphia lit was cooler and a brisk wind cut across the field to harry fielders when trailing fit balls.

The Athletics made a promising start. Their pep, missing at home, indicated a strong determination to stop the coward as the conditions weren't as good as in the thinking department. Schang was the trailing fit balls.

When the local game was over the crowd centred its attention on the belletin board, where a detailed description of the game in Boston was flashed. When the plucky Braves matched the two runs of the Athletics in the tenth hats and canes were thrown high into the air. When the news came that Boston had won in the twelfth pandemonium reigned. Most of the spectators remained on the field until the final result was known.

The Giants easily defeated the New Yorks at the Polo Grounds yesterday afternoon in the fourth game of the city championship series. A score of 6 to 1 gave the National League representatives their third victory as opposed to the solitary win of the enemy. McGraw's men have but to win again to assure themselves of the lion's share of the prize money-a pool that was swelled by more than 14,000 paid by the last game in which the players have any mercenary interest.

Arther Fromme had something to say to-day and the count in the Chicago city series now stands three games to two in favor of the Cubs. The Sox won to-day by 3 to 1. Had they lost the Cubs would have become the local champions. It was Scott against Cheney at the start and the lone run made by the Cubs was while Scott pitched. He gave way to a pinch hitter in the fifth and Faber pitched the remaining four rounds. He allowed just one hit. Cheney was hit hard, the Sox getting to him for nine safe blows. Two of them were triples and one was a double. The attendance was 18,348. The score: as to which groove the good intentions of

Perhaps the willing worker of McGraw's Perhaps the willing worker of McGraw's pitching staff should get the benefit of the doubt in view of the fact that he was assailed by relays. Marty McHale, Ray Keating and King Cole all took a filing at him. A brace of pinch hitters were employed to disconcert Art. score does not begin to portray the mistakes. Especially was the picket line at fault. Cree and Cook between them presented about as much resistance as could be expected from a glass roof against one of the Kalser's heavy siege guns.

The bland Mr. Cook allowed Fred Snodgrass to stretch an ordinary single into a two base hit and thereby frame a situation that helped put Fromme on easy street almost from the very start. Later in the game he falled to hold Fromme's drive to a single and from a resulting triple another run came. Birdle Cree had two chances to cut down runners at the plate on what would have been comparatively easy throws if properly executed. Both times he failed.

that moment they acted beaten. Even after they had scored in the fourth the spark did not revive. And this same Gun Club of Bloomheid sho-day. Frank Fisher and Allen Cockefair tied with 24. In the shootoff Fisher won. Jol Johnson won a 15 target shoot.

Doches Defeats the Colonel.

In a bogey competition at the Flushing Country Club yesterday A. E. Dochez finished 2 up on the mythical Colonel and won the event. A. Weymouth, by virtue of being all square at the finish, was second, and L. F. Nash, who finished 2 down, was third.

spark did not revive. And this same preclous run was slobbered away in the second half. The battery was directly to blame. McHale passed Burns, and Sweeney let the little star sift to second when he muffed the pitchout he ordered in anticipation of a steal. After Burns popped to Boone and Snodgrass lofted to Cree Grant singled cleanly to centre. Birdie's throw in was the best he showed all day and might have headed Burns at the plate. But McHale wouldn't stand for anything like that. He cut the throw

In the fifth inning, with two out, Cook overlooked the formality of heading Fromme's drive and it landed near the exit for a triple. Bobby Bescher dropped a fluky Texas leaguer inside of Cook for the run. McHale made a two base overthrow of first trying to catch Bescher. Nothing came of it, except possibly the removal of Marty, as Cook took Doyle's

All the very complimentary notices that have gone to the American Leaguers for grain work in the three first games were pretty badly blotted by yesterday's sere exhibition. They were guilty of just about everything that they should have avoided and left undone about everything they should have avoided and left undone about everything they should have accomplished. It is not difficult to furnish sound justification of the lopsidedness of the final tally.

The American Leaguers developed most assonishing weakness in their one recognized power—that of defence. The department which had been counted upon to minimize the runs of the victors went all to smash. King Cole served the last two innings. With two out in the eighth Cree failed to hold Merkle's loner after a hard chass and the runner got half way round.
